

CHECK-OFF DEDUCTION REMITTANCE FORM

Every cattle seller is required under Regulation 54 of the Beef Cattle Marketing Act (BCMA) to pay a $2.00 per head Ontario License Fee and a $1.00 per head National Levy, for a total of a $3.00 per head check-off. Cull dairy cows, bob calves and veal calves are included. This also includes all private treaty sales between individual producers. Fees are payable by the 15th of the month following deduction. Exemptions exist only for:

- a. cattle sold in a public auction sale organized where all of the cattle being sold are for the production of milk
- b. livestock dealers who sell the head of cattle within seven business days of having purchased it, with proper documentation.
